

GREAT WAR CREATING A KINSHIP AMONG WOMEN OF ALL STATIONS; NIMBLE FINGERS TO BE BUSY THIS WEEK FILLING CALL FROM THE HOSPITALS

By OLIVE P. LANDSEN.

AN ANSWERING the urgent call for hospital supplies, El Paso women are going to be as busy as bees at the various organizations this week.

It seems fitting that just at this time, representatives of the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the Jewish welfare board, the Catholic war council and our own Mrs. H. T. Bowie, president of the Y. W. C. A. of El Paso, should meet here to establish good fellowship among these organizations, which will help form the vast unit that will make the war drive next month.

The war drive is to help the men across the seas stand side by side, regardless of race, creed or caste, facing the enemy in a victorious struggle.

It was a beautiful spirit which prompted the sending forth of these women on this mission, and they are doing much in promoting the feeling of tender kinship which is already broadening day by day and is making the world sadder, sweeter and kinder.

The other day at a downtown restaurant, a refined, elegantly groomed woman, accompanied by an officer, was sitting at a table, observing the waitress's service. When she saw the waitress, she said, "My son, said the waitress, proudly, 'is right at the front.'"

"God grant you may soon hear," replied the waitress, as she patted the anxious mother's shoulder. "I, too, have known long, sleepless nights when my boy was on the sea."

So is formed a great understanding, created by an effort to comfort each other in these the most trying hours of our lives.

Miss Virginia Bean and her pupils on the violin furnished the music for the festival of the El Paso Red Cross. The violin solo, "Mandolinata," Connie Mae Tobin, and the violin solo, "Melody in F," Elizabeth Hunt and Anderson Davis.

Ensemble numbers selections from Schubert, Oriental Nights, played by Violins, Miss Minnie Edwards, Miss Dorothy Price, Miss Margaret, Miss Bessie Coppel, Miss Margaret Coppel, Miss Connie Mae Tobin, Miss Helen Weckerle, cello, Miss Virginia Bean, piano, Mrs. V. L. Bean.

Violin solo, Spanish Dance No. 4, Miss Minnie Edwards. Violin solo, "The March of the Maccabees," Miss Dorothy Price.

Miss Alicia Swan was in charge of the program of dancing for the evening. Following the close of the performance a set of children's furniture was donated to the Red Cross.

While the sewing room will not be open to workers until further notice, a representative of the Red Cross will be constant by the sewing room, as contributors are asked to send these articles to the rooms, all in good condition and clean. Towels, handkerchiefs, and other articles are wanted as the Red Cross will not ship them.

Persons who cannot deliver the contributions to the White House may have them called for by telephoning Mrs. Broadhead, Mrs. C. Cooley, Mrs. W. W. Turney or Mrs. J. P. Williams.

In answer to a special call for bed sheets, the women of the Trinity Missionary society will have an all day meeting at the church, Tuesday afternoon until 2:30 o'clock, when the regular business session will be held. Mrs. Davis Roberts and Mrs. H. L. Graham will be hostesses. All the women of the church will work at the White House Wednesday morning.

Mrs. T. W. Lanier, county chairman of the women's Liberty loan committee, makes an earnest appeal to the women who have been working in the Liberty loan drive to meet Tuesday at noon at the L. C. Graham building for a final meeting. Every woman in the drive, whether she has been able to give much or little time to the drive, is expected to be present.

The informal reception to be given at the McNary home on Tuesday afternoon in order that the representatives of the various organizations taking part in November's drive may meet Mrs. Henry T. Davidson, of the Y. W. C. A., Miss Ella Schooley of the Y. W. C. A., Mrs. Alexander Kohut, of the Jewish welfare board, and Mrs. Nicholas Brady, of the Catholic war council, will be postponed until Wednesday afternoon from 2:30 until 4 o'clock, on account of these visitors having been detained on their journey westward.

The reception will be held on the lawn if the weather is good.

The Women's Benefit Association of the Maccabees, No. 42, will have a called meeting in Odd Fellows hall at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The Aid society of the First Presbyterian church will hold a regular meeting at the church on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. A. W. Foster, presiding.

The Guild of Saint Clement's will have no further meetings until notice is given, on account of the influenza.

All meetings of the Friday Knitting club will be canceled until the danger attending the influenza is past.

The meeting of the Council of Jewish Women, to have been held Tuesday at 7 o'clock, will be postponed and no further meetings held until further notice, on account of the influenza. The meetings for the purpose of making surgical dressings will also be discontinued until further notice.

On account of the prevalence of influenza there will be no Red Cross meeting at the church on Tuesday afternoon, as had been planned. The regular business meeting of the auxiliary will also be discontinued.

Circle number 3 of the Central Baptist church will not meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. V. M. Milam, as planned, on account of the prevalence of influenza.

Very pretty was the dinner given at the Country club on Saturday evening by H. C. Smith, for a little party of five friends. The table had for a central decoration a tall crystal vase holding coral, carnations, lilies and other flowers. The host, Mr. Smith, and his wife, Mrs. Hamilton, were the guests of honor.

Long stemmed American Beauty roses were used in decoration at the beautifully appointed dinner at the Country club on Saturday evening preceding the dance, when Gen. and Mrs. James J. Hornbrook were host and hostess, complementing the general staff and their wives. Those at the dinner were Gen. and Mrs. Hornbrook, their daughter, Mrs. Steele Workins, Col. G. M. Morgan, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. E. G. Glover, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. J. A. Wagner, Maj. H. D. Matson, of the British army; Maj. T. B. McCown, Capt. R. Gerard, of the French army; Capt. A. D. Goffin, of the British army; Lieut. D. J. Hutchinson, of the British army; Lieut. and Mrs. D. B. Boudin, Lieut. B. H. McCarty, of the Gen. Hornbrook, and Lieut. J. M. Thompson.

There is some discussion in the Excelsior Fiddling band, on account of the playing of Film Dillard, who never gets through with a tune on his bass fiddle until the others are through and the heavy applause has died down.

On Sunday afternoon at his residence, 3400 Main street, Rev. J. P. Williams united in marriage Miss Beatrice Madge Austin and Pvt. James Leslie Dillard, of the El Paso mounted engineers. Miss Austin was very attractive in a tailored costume of gray cloth with hat and shoes matching. Their attendants were corporal A. M. Golden and Miss Mary Ginsburg, wearing a pretty frock of rose taffeta with picture hat of white Georgette. Both private Gills and his wife formerly lived in Pueblo, Colo.

University Club Pays a Tribute to the Hoosier Poet, James Whitcomb Riley

READINGS from James Whitcomb Riley's works, personal glimpses of the Hoosier poet, autograph letters and an analysis of his poems made up the Riley evening program of the University club forum Sunday evening.

Monday was the birthday anniversary of the Indiana poet and the monthly forum was devoted entirely to his life and writings, the usual current events discussion being postponed.

Because it was a happy evening of the order of the city board of health that no indoor meetings be held, chairman J. O. Barada, of the house committee, transferred the meeting to the roof of the University club, where easy chairs, Indian rugs and Japanese lanterns converted the roof garden into a forum. A statue of Riley, cast on his last living birthday anniversary, occupied a place on the library table.

Miss Isabel Hull, of the high school faculty, gave a number of Riley readings, dividing her program into the serious and humorous numbers. Her reading of "An Old Sweetheart of Mine" and "Little Orphan Annie" were especially good. Dr. Howard Thompson, an English teacher at the University, read a poem by Riley, "The Pumpkin," by request and quoted freely from Riley's writings. He also gave a personal sketch of Riley as he met him in Franklin, Ind., saying he closely resembled Dr. H. H. H. in appearance. Miss Hull read "An Old Sweetheart of Mine" again by request of those who were late and also read an original Indiana reverby by Frank Lynch, of El Paso.

Mrs. Young, Prof. Howard C. Colvin, Judge F. E. Hunter, T. H. H. Hunter and others participated in the general discussion, which was led by Norman Walker. Of the 149 present, a majority were former Indiana residents and a Hoosier circle was organized within the University club for future programs.

The next Sunday social function at the University club will be the Indian harvest tea to be held Sunday afternoon, Sept. 27, in charge of Tom Coughlin and Charles J. Andrews.

Musical. Music lovers enjoyed a rare treat Sunday evening in the drawing room at the residence of Mrs. Lillian Corcoran when Sydney Francis Hobbs gave a dramatic recital, telling the story of the opera "Thais." Massenet's masterpiece, the story of the notorious beauty and dancer of ancient Alexandria, in dramatic readings, accompanying the story at the piano. He rendered the story in a manner which proved him a dramatic artist as well as a master at the piano.

One was immediately impressed with the warmth and color of Mr. Hobbs' interpretations and the exquisite technique which rendered his difficult passages and runs so clear, clear. He leaves Tuesday for Los Angeles and the larger cities for a tour. While in El Paso Mr. Hobbs was the recipient of a number of courtesies extended by the musical and literary people of the city.

El Pasoans Returning. Mrs. J. B. Roberts, J. B. Jr., and Miss Rose returned Sunday from a business trip to the California coast. Mrs. J. B. Roberts, J. B. Jr., and Miss Rose returned Sunday from a business trip to the California coast.

Parties. The tiny tots had a wonderful time Sunday afternoon when Mrs. N. P. Lerner entertained in honor of the fifth birthday anniversary of her small son, Master Napoleon. Games were played and the prize for the most number of small craft was won by Miss Elizabeth Day. Twenty-four little guests enjoyed the afternoon's hospitality.

El Pasoans Away. Julius Krakauer and J. S. Curtis left Monday for St. Louis on a business trip. Dick Richardson, of the automobile exchange, bids goodby to his friends. He is leaving at 10 o'clock tonight for aviation service in the navy.

Out of Town Visitors. Miss Anne Laidlaw returned to her home in San Antonio, after visiting her relatives, Lucille and Anne Lyons, and Maxine Moran, also as the guest of Miss Rose Gillespie for a week.

Hard on Your Eyes. The steady drain on the reserve strength of your eyes will sooner or later make glasses absolutely necessary. If you are an enthusiastic reader, or do office or other work that puts a constant strain on your eyes, it is advisable to have your eyes examined frequently.

Unless the lenses you are wearing are accurately adapted to your weakened or imperfect vision they are doing a lot of harm. Let us examine your eyes to make certain. It's time well spent. Our charges are reasonable. Our services complete, conscientious.

"DRAG, DRAG AND SUFFER" Was All I Did," Says Dallas Lady, Who Gives Cardui Credit For Her Being Well and Strong Today.

Dallas, Texas—"It is hard to express the gratitude I feel for the medicine that saved my life," says Mrs. S. W. Bergen, of 2405 Lake Ave. "That is what Cardui did and I would like for others to know, as the few words I say may save a lot of suffering for some one."

I suffered everything one can suffer and lived. My back hurt, my head, my sides... a weak nervous hurting all over... Drag, drag and suffer. It was all I did. No rest and very little sleep or appetite.

I began to have spells... One night... I told my husband I would try Cardui. It had been recommended to me. I began it and it did me good. It saved my life. I verily believe.

I began to improve. I grew strong... I am a strong and well woman today. I praise Cardui and will praise it as long as I live.

Whenever I feel the need of a tonic, I send and get a bottle of Cardui and it helps me, seems to be what I need. Cardui may be what you need. Try Cardui. It's a mild, medicinal female tonic, that has helped many thousands of women in the past 40 years. It should help you.
